

Murad® Acne Overnight Soothing Gel for red, irritated skin

WHAT IT IS:

Rich in antioxidants and anti-inflammatories, Murad's Overnight Soothing Gel for red, irritated skin soothes on contact and works overnight to help reduce skin tenderness and irritation while improving the appearance of redness caused by acne. It also works to calm aggravated, sunburned or sensitive skin.

Overnight Soothing Gel is part of Murad's Acne line of formulas that are scientifically proven to clear current breakouts and help prevent new blemishes from forming.

FEATURES/ BENEFITS:

- Triple-action, anti-inflammatory blend soothes red, inflamed skin
- Canadian Willowherb helps to diminish redness specifically caused by UV exposure and over-processing of the skin
- Natural cooling agents provide a gentle, calming effect on tender and blemished skin
